

Please do not make any changes to Indiana's privacy law. As a working mom, my evenings are very precious and important to me and my family. Our supper, homework time, and even sleep was interrupted several times per week before the law went into effect. Since placing my name on the list in Dec. of 2001, I have received only 1 call! It's great!